Common Sense About Shirts. There are but very few things nearer to a man than his shirt. In buying a garment of so much importance it is proper that you should consider quality, fit, workmanship and finish—more than price. How about the bands? How about the button holes, the fulness, the length of skirt, the length of sierce, the shape at the neck, &c. We never expect to live long enough to see a better shirt t an our "Famous Invincible," sold at 85c. each, 6 for $5-for to-day others get a dollar for shirts no better and frequently not so good.

Ours is a Shirt House.

Worth

Of tailoring is not necessarily found where prices are the highest. The question of grice is one which is in the main governed by the expense account. High rents, &c., inevitably demand larger profits. It requires no argument to convince you of this locie. Our expense account is small—jaroits corresponding—natural result—lower prices than you are in the habit of paying.

There was, in the secretary's opinion, no possible danger of a financial panic.

Another treasury official said this morning that the bears in Wall street might attempt to profit by Mr. Gould's death, but were not likely to accomplish any more than they did in a similar attempt to bear the market on the occasion of Mr. Vanderbilt's death.

In conversation with a STAR reporter this morning Mr. Grout said that he had not looked into the matter as to the chances for District legislation this session, but he did know that there was urgent need for speedy action on a number of District bills now pending. "There will be a strong effort made to have some of those District bills passed," he said, "but they will undoubtedly meet with opposition and obstacles on account of the shortness of the session." Regarding national affairs Mr. Grout said that he did not believe that there would be an extra session of the Fifty-third Congress. "Although considerable pressure," he said, "will be brought to bear on Mr. Cleveland I do not think he will yield to the persuasions. I do not believe, either, that the democrats will make the general reductions in the tariff that they seem so anxious to do."

Washington on his way to New York. Mr. Egan said to a STAR reporter:

"I am here simply to see Secretary of State Poster and other officials connected with the State Department previous to my departure for the south. I will probably remain in the city three or four days before I go to New York. I expect to leave for Chile on the steamer which sails from New York on December 10."

In connection with the pointed stories of his remove designation Mr. Egan said, "Those reports are what we call in Chili 'bolas."

Representative Meredith a Very Sick Man. Representative Meredith of the eighth Virginia district is a very sick man. He came there to take part in the democratic demonstration and a week ago and was taken sick with erysipelas of the face. Since then he has been confined in bed at the residence of Dr. C. J. still another on last Weducsday. This announcement was a great surprise to all but the most intimate acquaintances of Mr. Gould. It had all along been supposed that he was suffering from nervous dyspepsia.

From an early hour last night Mr. Gould began sinking rapidly. Dr. Munn, his physician, had Dr. Janeway in consultation, but they said that nothing could be done but make Mr. Gould's last hours as comfortable as possible.

Dr. John R. Paxton, the pastor of Mr. Gould's charch, was at the house last night when the end came. The members of the family who were in the house were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould, Mr. Howard Gould, Mr. Harold Gould and Miss Annie Gould.

Dr. Munn had assured the family that there was no immediate danger, and all had retired except the doctor, who stayed to keep watch.

It was not until 5-30 that any signs of life was seen in the sick room window. At 6 o'clock the shades were still down. The bell was rung and the butler answered it.

"How is Mr. Gould this morning?" he was asked.
